I think this is a good way to learn history because it is easier to understand the overall idea of the certain historical event. Learning via that almost happens without noticing and it can also bring us new point of views about a historical event, which can otherwise be a little difficult to understand it in its entirety as it happened many hundreds years ago.

An arrangement of a musical composition is a reworking of a piece of music so that it can be played by a different instrument or combination of instruments from the original. For example, a song written for one voice with piano accompaniment might be arranged so that it can be sung in parts by a choir, or a piece for violin might be arranged so that it can be played on a clarinet instead.

A musical transcription is musical notation for an existing piece of music that had been previously unnotated. Musicians often disagree about what should be called a "transcription" and what is an "arrangement". Usually transcriptions are a direct notation of the source, whereas a musician who makes an arrangement may insert new interpretations into the music (i.e. changing the ...

Question: "What is the history of Christianity?" Answer: The history of Christianity is really the history of Western civilization. Christianity has had an all-pervasive influence on society at large—art, language, politics, law, family life, calendar dates, music, and the very way we think have all been colored by Christian influence for nearly two millennia.
