They were some of the biggest stars in the sports world and weren't even cashing checks to play the game. That's the beautiful and bizarre world of NCAA basketball. College programs are a rotating door, churning out student athletes every four years (if they're there that long), but that's all this list of NCAA stars needed to leave an everlasting impression on their program and the nation.

For years, a mysterious figure lurked in the darkness of a rural town in Maine, stealing from homes and running away. Nobody had ever seen the person and hardly even knew whether it was a human or supernatural demon committing the series of crimes. All they knew was that they were afraid and even the police were powerless to stop it. Who was really behind it all?
